The democracy are predicting an immense amount of trouble for Mr. Lincoln, in the course which he is to pursue, and they overflow with advice to him.

The difficulty, they say, is to satisfy both the extreme south and his own political friends.

Those who are now raising the standard of rebellion in the south, will probably not be satisfied with anything that Mr. Lincoln can do. If they rejected Mr. Douglas when he sacrificed everything to their demands, it is not expected that Mr. Lincoln can please them. We do not believe that he will try to do so. We have faith that the south will herself take care of these men. Their influence is over-estimated. They are making a great noise just now, and by terrorism overawing the friends of the Union in South Carolina and Georgia. But we think they will soon subside, because there is no foundation for their clamor. Nobody has yet interfered with them or their rights, and an excitement cannot be kept up, founded upon something that does not exist, except in imagination, and which is not likely to happen; that is, that the general government will interfere at some future time with the rights of the southern states.

We, therefore, think that by the fourth of March, the excitement in the south will have ceased; and when Mr. Lincoln, in his inaugural address foreshadows the course he will pursue, there will be no cause for apprehension. The truth is that Mr. Lincoln and the republican party have been misrepresented at the south, and the people of that section will soon find it out. On the subject of slavery there has been but a single question decided; and that is, that it shall not be extended. The republican party and Mr. Lincoln stand pledged before the nation to prevent slavery from gaining a foothold in our territories so far as they the power to do so.

When the republicans have control of all the branches of the government, they will then be responsible for the whole policy of the country. But inasmuch as the slave power has the senate, the house of representatives and the supreme court, it will be impossible for the republicans to carry into effect the measures which they propose. Mr. Lincoln may recommend measures, but it remains for congress to pass them; on the other hand congress may enact laws and the president may veto them; and here is the principal power which will be possessed by the new president. Beyond this, and the influence of the appointing power, he can do nothing. But if he could, we apprehend that the sensible men of the south would find in them no cause for alarm, much less for rebellion. He would simply renege on the policy of Washington, Jefferson and Madison—that is all. The republican party believes that the general government should not countenance the institution of slavery anywhere, that it should prohibit it from the territories, and holds that the states should be left to manage that institution, within their own borders in their own way, without and interference from the nation. Such was the belief and the practice of the fathers of our government, and we have no doubt such will be the policy of Mr. Lincoln's administration. Can any patriotic citizen object to that?

If the south will not consent to this, and if, because she and her statesmen have been displaced fairly and constitutionally from the control which she has so long exercised over the government, and if she proposes to resist the will of the people by force—was to her and her institution of slavery. The temper of the north just now is not to be trifled with. The people mean just what they have expressed in this election. They mean fairness and conciliation—but they intend this nation shall be ruled for the benefit of freedom hereafter, and not of slavery, exclusively.

A POLITICAL PROPHECY.—The Chicago Herald, the day before the election, indulged in the following predictions:

Kane is pledged to reduce the majority for Fremont at least 1,000 votes.

In Cook, Fremont's majority was 3,340. This will reduce 1,500 and probably 1,700 this year.

All through the northern part of the state the republican majority of 1856 will be reduced from 25 to 50 per cent. We look to the center and south with hope and confidence, and they may rely upon it that northern Illinois will do her duty to-morrow.

It is just such unfounded assertions, all through the campaign, which misled the readers of this central organ of democracy, and has cost its deluded followers a good deal more than they can afford to pay.

MASSACHUSETTS.—"THERE SHE STANDS."—The aggregate returns of the vote in Massachusetts for electors of President and Vice-President (the state being complete excepting nine towns) show

For Lincoln and Hamlin	104,467
For Douglas and Johnson	34,007
For Bell and Everett	22,017
For Breckinridge and Lane	6,072

Lincoln's clean majority 70,461
Lincoln's plurality over Douglas 70,460
Lincoln's plurality over Bell 82,460

The counselors (8) are all republican. The Senate stands 39 republicans to 2 democrats. The House, 223 republicans to 17 "fusion."

WALWORTH COUNTY.—Judge Spooner and Mr. Loog, republicans, are elected in the assembly district where independent candidates were running.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.—Nathan Parker, republican, is elected to the assembly from the third district in Washington county, and L. F. Frisby, republican, and a capital fellow, from the second. Good enough for Washington county.

It has heretofore been a mooted question as to how low journalism could be sunk by a happy combination of meanness, mendacity and ignorance. It is doubtful whether before the establishment of the Democrat of this city all these qualities, in every marked and perfect degree, have ever met in the contributions of a single journal, although it is, we are sorry to say, not very uncommon to find a combination of two of them. It remained for the Democrat, by the aid of a corps of irresponsible writers, to show what the fusion of these three despicable traits would produce, and the result is most brilliant and startling. It has culminated in an article this morning entitled "As it was and is."

There the state lies are deliberately reiterated that the republicans are in favor of negro equality and amalgamation;

That they are abolitionists;

That Mr. Lincoln is a Tory and traitor to his country;

That the republican party, and William H. Seward in particular, aided and abetted John Brown in his raid in Virginia;

That Hon. Henry Wilson, of Mass., said the Harper's Ferry outbreak was the legitimate consequence of the teachings of the republican party;

That Carl Schurz has slandered and vilified the authors of the declaration of independence;

That all its campaign charges against Mr. Graham are true.

Is it to be expected that we shall proceed to refute such senseless, palpable, lying trash? There is not even a school boy eight years old in the city that has ever been or ever will be deceived by this stuff. It is precisely this kind of business in which the Democrat has been engaged ever since its establishment. A democratic journal, fairly and honorably conducted, in this city, would command the respect of republicans as well as democrats, and would receive aid and support from our business men of all parties, while it could aid its political friends and candidates. Such a journal would ever be treated with courtesy and respect by us.

But this concern has taken such a course that the republicans of the city, whenever it excites any feeling, despise it. Among the great majority of our party it is regarded as being beneath contempt; while with the respectable portion of the democratic party it only creates feelings of chagrin and disgust. For this reason it is utterly powerless to injure anybody except by its approval and support.

We do not intend to devote any more time to this matter, as we can find other subjects more acceptable to our readers and subjects more acceptable to ourselves.

A LEGAL QUESTION.—A peculiar case is now being tried by the Supreme Court, in session at Norwich, Conn., involving the question "what constitutes a citizen?" The estate of R. Increase Stoddard, a quadroon or person of quarter African blood, was levied on by the proper officers and sold in payment for town taxes. Action is brought to recover the amount collected under the levy upon the ground that the property was exempt from taxation by the provision of the statute which exempts the property of "persons of color." The question raised by counsel, and reserved by the court whether a person of one fourth African blood comes within the meaning of the states as "persons of color." The Bulletin says that the question is one of considerable interest, as, if it was decided that the levy was proper, and the estate subject to taxation, it makes all persons of one-fourth African blood "citizens" under the constitution, so that they may be admitted to all the privileges of an elector. The decision will be either that they are "persons of color," and, as such exempt from taxation, or "white" citizens, and, as such, entitled to the elective franchise.

THE ROTTEN EGG ARGUMENT.—It will be perceived by our extracts from southern papers that the statement that Mr. Douglas had been assaulted with rotten eggs, at Montgomery, Ala., is corroborated. We wonder if Mr. Douglas is now satisfied that those political sentiments only are true which can be promulgated with safety in every section of the country?

DIPHTHERIA IN CHICAGO.—The diphtheria is still prevalent in the city, and attacks grown folks as well as children. When treated in its first stages, it is generally cured, but if left to run along for some days, it is almost sure to prove fatal, especially in very young children. As soon as an uncomfortable sensation is felt in the throat, go to a good physician.

VOTING IN EGYPT.—The vote in Ullin, Pulaski county, Illinois, which is in lower Egypt, was for Lincoln 51, Douglas 40—Mound City, same county, Lincoln 44, Douglas 94, Bell 28, Valley Forge, same county, Lincoln 52, Douglas 57.

JUDGMENT AGAINST SIX HUNDRED LIQUOR DEALERS FOR THE SUM OF THIRTY EIGHT THOUSAND DOLLARS.—It is a well known fact that there are several thousand suits on the calendar of the court of common pleas, New York, brought by the board of commissioners of excise, to recover a penalty of $50 for each violation of the excise law by liquor dealers selling liquor without licenses. Some six hundred having failed to answer the complaints, judgments have recently been obtained against them in the sum of $50 each, and $13,130 costs, making a total sum of about $83,000. These judgments have been entered up, and executions will be issued forthwith.

RESULT OF A NIGHTS FROST.—A widow named Hatfield, residing in a lonely house a few miles from Bloomfield, Ind., was awakened a few weeks ago by persons trying to open her doors and raise her windows, and finally heard them conversing with one another. Seizing a gun she fired from the window, and there was an instant commencing, and all was still. The next morning the body of a deaf and dumb man residing near by, was found a short distance from the house, with a bullet lodged in his body.

AN INVITATION.—One of Sir Boyle Esq. has written to an Irish nobleman was rather out of the way, my lord, if ever you come within a mile of my house, you'll stay there all night."

As it will go out to all parts of the country that a most disgraceful and outrageous act was perpetrated on Thursday night last, upon the arrival of Judge Douglas at the Exchange Hotel, in this city, by some unknown miscreant throwing two or three eggs which struck all the three gentlemen in the same vehicle with him, as they were in the act of getting out, it is but just that we should say, and we do so with great pleasure, that the act was not only not sanctioned, but was disapproved and denounced by every gentleman of the Breckinridge party.

We think it is also due to them to say that, as a party, we believe they condemn it unqualifiedly. And as the best evidence of the sentiment of this entire community regarding this outrage, we would notice the fact, that the poor, miserable, contemptible, cowardly blackguard dare not let his name be known to any one. He is compelled to live in the consciousness of his having perpetrated a most disgraceful act, with the certainty that it may become revealed, and he dealt with as such a culprit deserves.

Our Unequivocal Disapproval and Condemnation.—We have said this morning, that three or four eggs were thrown at Mr. Douglas last night, at the Exchange Hotel, just as he was about leaving a carriage. If it be true, we have only to express our regrets that it happened in Montgomery, with the belief that no one of our citizens did it. The city is full of strangers—some of them from other states—and among so many of course all the various shades of character may be found. But if a citizen of Montgomery or of this state is the guilty one, he should be found and held up to the indignation of our citizens. Whatever the degree of respect may be which we entertain for the opinions and person of Mr. Douglas, his supporters in our community are gentlemen, and their feelings should be respected.

The above was taken from the Montgomery Mail of yesterday, and while we agree with its editor that the perpetrator of this outrage should be held up to the indignation of the people, we think that if he had disavowed some weeks ago the bold assertions of some fire-eaters in our city, declaring that they intended to take and leave Mr. Douglas, nothing of the kind would have ever happened. Did not the editor of the Mail remember the bitter paragraph that appeared in his paper a few days ago, wishing to know if Douglas had the audacity to speak in Montgomery. Here it is:

"THE MAN THAT CARRIED PENNSYLVANIA"—Douglas, having prevented the success of the Union conservative ticket, on the 9th of October, in Pennsylvania—thereby securing the election of an abolitionist, has the audacity to announce that he will visit Montgomery, Alabama, on the second of November.

That is what we call little gigantic audacity!—[Mail of Oct. 13.]

Here, then, in this short article may be found an encouragement of the diabolical outrage that was committed in this city on Thursday night. We do not charge that the editor of the mail took any part in the disgraceful scene, but we do charge, and we do it boldly and without fear of contradiction or consequences, that the paragraph which we have clipped from his paper of Oct. 13, and others of the same character, encouraged somewhat the base and miserable second-hand to the rescue, that he did, and on this opinion every honest, true and good man will be with us.

[From the Montgomery Advertiser—Breckinridge.] On Thursday night the Little Giant arrived, and was met at the depot by a Douglas procession, consisting of the entire voting strength of the Confederation office (nine) in carriages, five musicians, a couple of dozen niggers bearing torches, and some fifty charitable Bell men, who kindly volunteered to assist their friends in distress. We regret that some persons unknown, said to be ladies on the sidewalk, discharged a few rotten eggs at the procession as it passed. The citizens of Montgomery doubtless feel that the visit of this President-elect to our city at this time is a wanton insult, but it would have been better to have let the little demagogue pass by unnoticed.

The Breckinridge and Lane club at Montgomery have held a meeting at which the following proceedings were had in relation to the indignity to Douglas: Whereas, We have heard it announced on the street that some unknown person was so regardless of all sense of propriety as to offer a personal indignity to Judge Douglas, at or near the Exchange Hotel, in this city on Thursday evening; and whereas, some have been so unjust as to charge this improper conduct upon the Breckinridge party; therefore, be it

1. Resolved, By the Breckinridge and Lane club, in full meeting assembled, that we utterly repudiate and condemn the act.

2. That a copy of this resolution be given to Mr. Douglas, and the Confederation be requested to copy the same.

T. B. BETHIA, Pres. B. L. Club.

J. F. JOHNSON, Secy.

A CLOSE RUN.—We have the gratification of announcing the election of Jayne in the Springfield district.

The following is official:

Saugamon.....69 maj. for Jayne.

UNPRECEDENTED.—The Buffalo Commercial of Thursday says: "The largest freight bill of any rail craft of the whole chain of lakes, ever offered for collection, was presented this morning to the firm of P. L. Sternberg & Co., amounting to $5,550. The vessel earning this before unheard of amount of cash, in a single trip, was the bark Great West, of Buffalo. She brought hither 30,000 bushels of wheat from Chicago, at 19 1/2c freight, consigned to the firm above named."

The San Francisco correspondent of the New York World thus announces the extinguishment of one of the brightest Italian operatic prima donna luminaries that has ever come to America: "Madame Bisaccianti, whom prima donna of the Italian opera, has fallen somewhat in the scale of professional respectability, as well as in the estimation of her former friends. Madame B. has accepted an engagement with the management of the Athenaeum, a cheap place of amusement, exclusively for masculine pleasure-seekers, and where larger beer and other stimulants are served to the auditory by flashily-dressed young women, of no reputation. The star of Madame Bisaccianti's fame has set. She can never emerge from the social horizon beneath which she has fallen. To say the least, her course of life during the year past has not been unexceptionable.

A terrific storm on the line of the Virginia and Tennessee railroad swept away 12 bridges, and destroyed the roadway for miles, on Monday and Tuesday. An outlay of nearly $200,000 will be required to get the line in running order.

On the opening of the house assembly to-day for business, the speaker announced that he had received a communication from United States senator, Mr. Whally offering a resolution that the resolution be accepted. He said that what under other circumstances would be regarded with regret, would be recognized as an act of loyal devotion to South Carolina.

Mr. Desha made a report from the committee on raising means, recommending a bill to postpone the act requiring the banks to have one-third of gold and silver to two-thirds of their issue.

This report was unanimously adopted. A bill was introduced to provide a police in relation to persons coming from states hostile to the south.

Mr. Aldrich made a report from the committee on federal relations, making amendments to the senate bill calling a convention of the people, by inserting that an election be held on the 6th of December instead of the 6th of January, and that the convention meet on the 17th of December instead of the 19th of January.

After discussing the bill as amended, it was passed unanimously. The senate this evening agreed to the house amendment and the bill finally passed. It is expected that Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Texas and Mississippi will go with South Carolina.

The news of the resignation of Mr. Toombs is hailed with the greatest enthusiasm.

Mr. Simon offered a resolution in the senate, that the Governor be requested to raise 10,000 volunteers. This resolution will be considered on Monday.

This evening a great crowd has assembled in front of the Congress House, numbering over 2,000 men. The minute men were also out in great force, marching down the main streets, making a grand display of fire works. Judge McGuffey, and Messrs. Connor, Colcock, and Cunningham addressed the crowd.

AGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 12. Senator Toombs of Georgia, and Senator Chestnut of South Carolina have resigned their seats in the United States Senate.

A large meeting of the citizens was held in the council chamber this afternoon, Mr. Blodgett presiding. The Mayor stated he had received information that some of our citizens had been notified to leave by unauthorized persons, and that this meeting was called to consider whether we should protect ourselves by upholding the laws for the preservation of order or allow unauthorized men to take the law out of our hands. The chairman selected a respectable and influential committee who reported the following:

Resolved, That we live under a government of law, and that it is the bounden duty of every good citizen to see all rights respected and all our wrongs speedily redressed in the form provided by law.

Resolved, That the genius of our institution forbids the punishment of a citizen without a fair trial by jury.

Resolved, that the assumption by individuals however influential and respectable by any powers of government are subversive of all civil liberty and that its tendencies are fatal to the vital interest of the community.

Resolved, that if the existing laws are insufficient for the protection of the rights of our citizens the proper course is to apply to the legislature to amend and modify them as the interest of society may require. Unqualified excitement prevailed at the time and during the meeting which was addressed by Colonel Cummings, Wright, Ford and others—conservative sentiments generally prevailed, the resolutions announced were adopted.

9 P. M. The sessionists are holding a large meeting here to-night. The Savannah resolutions were unanimously adopted and are being amended as follows:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that the only remedy for the election of Abraham Lincoln is immediate disunion.

This resolution was received with loud and prolonged applause. It is believed that the thanks of the south are due to brave and gallant men of the north, who attempted to roll back the tide of fanaticism. Resolved, That this meeting is pledged to resist a rate of taxation to maintain a million of dollars to arm and organize the for the state. A further resolution was then adopted condemning the action of the citizens' meeting this afternoon and declaring the resolutions adopted by that meeting as not expressing the sense of the community. Col. Anderson of Savannah is now addressing the meeting, arguing in favor of decided and immediate action. The most intense excitement prevails.

11 P. M.

The meeting of the minute men has just adjourned. The speeches made were very animated and exciting and elicited the most enthusiastic applause. QUEBEC, Nov. 12. The steamship North American from Liverpool via Londonderry 2d arrived at 6:30 P. M. Sunday. France formidable naval and military preparations are going on and some writers construe the recent count of war at St. Cloud as a probable indication of an eventful campaign.

Such was the belief and the practice of the fathers of our government, and we have no doubt such will be the policy of Mr. Lincoln's administration. Can any patriotic citizen object to that?

If the south will not consent to this, and if, because she and her statesmen have been displaced fairly and constitutionally from the control which she has so long exercised over the government, and if she proposes to resist the will of the people by force—woe to her and her institution of slavery. The temper of the north just now is not to be trifled with. The people mean just what they have expressed in this election. They mean fairness and conciliation—but they intend this nation shall be ruled for the benefit of freedom hereafter, and not of slavery, exclusively.

A POLITICAL PROPHECY.—The Chicago Herald, the day before the election, indulged in the following predictions:

Kane is pledged to reduce the majority for Fremont at least 1,000 votes.

In Cook, Fremont's majority was 3,340. This we will reduce 1,500 and probably 1,700 this year.

All through the northern part of the state the republican majority of 1856 will be reduced from 35 to 50 per cent. We look to the center and south with hope and confidence, and they may rely upon it that northern Illinois will do her duty to-morrow.

It is just such unfounded assertions, all through the campaign, which misled the readers of this central organ of democracy, and has cost its deluded followers a good deal more than they can afford to pay.

MASSACHUSETTS.—"THEIR SEE STANDS."—The aggregate returns of the vote in Massachusetts for electors of President and Vice-President (the state being complete excepting nine towns) show

For Lincoln and Hamlin 104,467
For Douglas and Johnson 34,007
For Bell and Everett 22,017
For Breckinridge and Lane 6,072

Lincoln's clear majority 42,371
Lincoln's plurality over Douglas 70,460
Lincoln's plurality over Bell 82,460

The councilors (8) are all republicans. The Senate stands 88 republicans to 2 democrats. The House, 223 republicans to 17 "fusion."

WALWORTH COUNTY.—Judge Spooner and Mr. Long, republicans, are elected in the assembly district where independent candidates were running.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.—Nathan Parker, republican, is elected to the assembly from the third district in Washington county, and L. F. Frisby, republican, and a capital fellow, from the second. Good enough for Washington county.

It has heretofore been a mooted question as to how low journalism could be sunk by a happy combination of meanness, mendacity and ignorance. It is doubtful whether before the establishment of the Democrat of this city all these qualities, in every marked and perfect degree, have ever met in the contributions of a single journal, although it is, we are sorry to say, not very uncommon to find a combination of two of them. It remained for the Democrat, by the aid of a corps of irresponsible writers, to show what the fusion of these three despicable traits would produce, and the result is most brilliant and startling. It has culminated in an article this morning entitled "As it was and is."

These the stables are deliberately reiterated that the republicans are in favor of negro equality and amalgamation;

That they are abolitionists;

That Mr. Lincoln is a tory and traitor to his country;

That the republican party, and William H. Seward in particular, aided and abetted John Brown in his raid in Virginia;

That Hon. Henry Wilson, of Mass., said the Harper's Ferry outbreak was the legitimate consequence of the teachings of the republican party;

That Carl Schurz has slandered and vilified the authors of the declaration of independence;

That all its campaign charges against Mr. Graham are true.

It is to be expected that we shall proceed to refute such senseless, palpable, lying trash? There is not even a school boy eight years old in the city that has ever been or ever will be deceived by this stuff. It is precisely this kind of business in which the Democrat has been engaged ever since its establishment. A democratic journal, fairly and honorably conducted, in this city, would command the respect of republicans as well as democrats, and would receive aid and support from our business men of all parties, while it could aid its political friends and candidates. Such a journal would ever be treated with courtesy and respect by us.

But this concern has taken such a course that the republicans of the city, whenever it excites any feeling, despise it. Among the great majority of our party it is regarded as being beneath contempt; while with the respectable portion of the democratic party it only creates feelings of chagrin and disgust. For this reason it is utterly powerless to injure anybody except by its approval and support.

We do not intend to devote any more time to this matter, as we can find other subjects more acceptable to our readers and agreeable to ourselves.

A LEGAL QUESTION.—A peculiar case is now being tried by the Supreme Court, in session at Norwich, Conn., involving the question "what constitutes a citizen?"

The estate of R. Increase Stoddard, a quadroon or person of quarter African blood, was levied on by the proper officers and sold in payment for town taxes. Action is brought to recover the amount collected under the levy upon the ground that the property was exempt from taxation by the provision of the statute which exempts the property of "persons of color." The question raised by counsel, and reserved by the court whether a person of one fourth African blood comes within the meaning of the states as "persons of color." The Bulletin says that the question is one of considerable interest, as, if it was decided that the levy was proper, and the estate subject to taxation, it makes all persons of one-fourth African blood "citizens" under the constitution, so that they may be admitted to all the privileges of an elector. The decision will be either that they are "persons of color," and, as such exempt from taxation, or "white" citizens, and, as such, entitled to the elective franchise.

THE ROTTEN EGG ARGUMENT.—It will be perceived by our extracts from southern papers that the statement that Mr. Douglas had been assaulted with rotten eggs, at Montgomery, Ala., is corroborated. We wonder if Mr. Douglas is now satisfied that those political sentiments only are true which can be promulgated with safety in every section of the country?

DIPHTHERIA IN CHICAGO.—The diphtheria is still prevalent in the city, and attacks grown folks as well as children. When treated in its first stages, it is generally cured, but if left to run along for some days, it is almost sure to prove fatal, especially in very young children. As soon as an uncomfortable sensation is felt in the throat, go to a good physician.

VOTING IN EGYPT.—The vote in Ullin, Pulaaki county, Illinois, which is in lower Egypt, was for Lincoln 51, Douglas 40—Mount City, same county, Lincoln 44, Douglas 94, Bell 28, Valley Forge, same county, Lincoln 52, Douglas 57.

JUDGMENT AGAINST SIX HUNDRED LIQUOR DEALERS FOR THE SUM OF THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.—It is a well known fact that there are several thousand suits on the calendar of the court of common pleas, New York, brought by the board of commissioners of excise, to recover a penalty of $50 for each violation of the excise law by liquor dealers selling liquor without licenses. Some six hundred having failed to answer the complaints, judgments have been obtained against them in the sum of $50 each and $13,133 cents, making a total sum of about $38,000. These judgments have been entered up, and executions will be issued forthwith.

RESULT OF A NIGHT'S FROST.—A widow named Hatfield, residing in a lonely house a few miles from Bloomfield, Ind., was awakened a few weeks ago by persons trying to open her doors and raise her windows, and plainly heard them conversing with one another. Seizing a gun she fired from the window, and there was an instant scampering, and all was still. The next morning the body of a deaf and dumb man residing near by, was found a short distance from the house, with a bullet lodged in his body.

AN INVITATION.—One of Sir Boyle Roche's invitations to an Irish nobleman was rather equivocal: "I hope, my lord, if ever you come within a mile of my house, you'll stay there all night."

As it will go out to all parts of the country that a most disgraceful and outrageous act was perpetrated on Thursday night last, upon the arrival of Judge Douglas at the Exchange Hotel, in this city, by some unknown miscreant throwing two or three eggs which struck all the three gentlemen in the same vehicle with him, as they were in the act of getting out, it is but just that we should say, and we do so with great pleasure, that the act was not only not sanctioned, but was disapproved and denounced by every gentleman of the Breckinridge party.

We think it is also due to them to say that, as a party, we believe they condemn it unqualifiedly. And as the best evidence of the sentiment of this entire community regarding this outrage, we would notice the fact, that the poor, miserable, contemptible, cowardly blackguard dare not let his name be known to any one. He is compelled to live in the consciousness of his having perpetrated a most disgraceful act, with the constant fear that it may become revealed, and be dealt with as such conduct deserves.

OUR UNQUALIFIED DISAPPROVAL AND CONDEMNATION.—We hear it said this morning, that three or four eggs were thrown at Mr. Douglas last night at the Exchange Hotel, just as he was about leaving a carriage. If it be true, we have only to express our regrets that it happened in Montgomery, with the belief that no one of our citizens did it. The city is full of strangers—some of them from other states—and among so many of course all the various shades of character may be found. But if a citizen of Montgomery or of this state is the guilty one, he should be found out and held up to the indignant frowns of our citizens. Whatever the degree of respect may be which we entertain for the opinions and person of Mr. Douglas, his supporters in our community are gentlemen, and their feelings should be respected.

The above was taken from the Montgomery Mail of yesterday, and while we agree with its editor that the perpetrator of this outrage should be held up to the indignant scorn of the people, we think that if he had disavowed two weeks ago the bold assertions of some free-pressers in our city, declaring that they intended to tar and feather Douglas, nothing of the kind would have ever happened. Does not the editor of the Mail remember the bitter paragraph that appeared in his paper a few days ago, wishing to know if Douglas had the audacity to speak in Montgomery. Here it is:

"THE MAN THAT CARRIED PENNSYLVANIA"—Douglas, having prevented the success of the Union conservative ticket, on the 9th of October, in Pennsylvania—thereby securing the election of an abolitionist, has the audacity to announce that he will visit Montgomery, Alabama, on the second of November.

"That is what we call little gigantic audacity!"—[Mail of Oct. 13.]

Here, then, in this short article may be found an encouragement of the diabolical outrage that was committed in this city on Thursday night. We do not charge that the editor of the mail took any part in the disgraceful scene, but we do charge, and we do it boldly and without fear of contradiction or consequences, that the paragraph which we have clipped from his paper of Oct. 13, and others of the same character, encouraged somewhat the base and miserable scoundrel to do the rascally act that he did, and on this opinion every honest, true and good man will be with us.

[From the Montgomery Advertiser—Breckinridge.]

On Thursday night the Little Giant arrived, and was met at the depot by a Douglas procession, consisting of the entire voting strength of the Confederation office (nine) in carriages, five musicians, a couple of dozen negroes bearing torches, and some fifty charitable Bell men, who kindly volunteered to assist their friends in distress.—We regret that some persons unknown, said to be ladies on the sidewalk, discharged a few rotten eggs at the procession as it passed. The citizens of Montgomery doubtless feel that the visit of this Freeholder to our city at this time is a wanton insult, but it would have been better to have let the little demagogue pass by unnoticed.

The Breckinridge and Lane club at Montgomery have held a meeting, at which the following proceedings were had in relation to the indignity to Douglas:

Whereas, We have heard it announced on the street that some unknown person was so regardless of all sense of propriety as to offer a personal indignity to Judge Douglas, at or near the Exchange Hotel, in this city on Thursday evening; and, whereas, some have been so unjust as to charge this improper conduct upon the Breckinridge party; therefore, be it

- Resolved, By the Breckinridge and Lane club, in full meeting assembled, that we utterly repudiate and condemn the act.
- That a copy of this resolution be given to Mr. Douglas, and the Confederation be requested to copy the same.

UNPRECEDENTED.—The Buffalo Commercial of Thursday says: "The largest freight bill of any sail craft of the whole chain of lakes, ever offered for collection, was presented this morning to the firm of P. L. Sternberg & Co., amounting to $5,550. The vessel earning this before unheard of amount of cash, in a single trip, was the bark Great West, of Buffalo. She brought hither 30,000 bushels of wheat from Chicago, at 18 1/2c freight, consigned to the firm above named."

The San Francisco correspondent of the New York World thus announces the extinguishment of one of the brightest Italian operatic prima donna luminaries that has ever come to America:

"Madame Biscaccianti, whilom prima donna of the Italian opera, has fallen somewhat in the scale of professional respectability, as well as in the estimation of her former friends. Madame B. has accepted an engagement with the management of the Athenaeum, a cheap place of amusement, exclusively for masculine pleasure-seekers, and where larger beer and other stimulants are served to the auditory by fashionably-dressed young women, of no reputation. The star of Madame Biscaccianti's fame has set. She can never emerge from the social horizon beneath which she has fallen. To say the least, her course of life during the year past has not been unexceptionable."

A terrific storm on the line of the Virginia and Tennessee railroad swept away 12 bridges, and destroyed the roadway for miles, on Monday and Tuesday. An outlay of nearly $200,000 will be required to get the line in running order.

On the opening of the house assembly to-day for business, the speaker announced that he had received a communication from Wm. Chestnut resigning his position as United States senator.

Mr. Whally offered a resolution that the resolution be accepted. He said that what under other circumstances would be regarded with regret, would be recognized as an act of loyal devotion to South Carolina.

Mr. Desassure made a report from the committee on raising means, recommending a bill to postpone the act requiring the banks to have one-third of gold and silver to two-thirds of their issue.

This report was unanimously adopted. A bill was introduced to provide a police in relation to persons coming from states hostile to the south.

Mr. Aldrich made a report from the committee on federal relations, making amendments to the senate bill calling a convention of the people, by inserting that an election be held on the 6th of December instead of the 6th of January, and that the convention meet on the 17th of December instead of the 18th of January.

After discussing the bill as amended, it was passed unanimously.

The senate this evening agreed to the house amendment and the bill finally passed. It is expected that Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Texas and Mississippi will go with South Carolina.

The news of the resignation of Mr. Toombs is hailed with the greatest enthusiasm.

Mr. Simon offered a resolution in the senate, that the Governor be requested to raise 10,000 volunteers. This resolution will be considered on Monday.

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 12.

Senator Toombs of Georgia, and Senator Chestnut of South Carolina have resigned their seats in the United States Senate.

A large meeting of the citizens was held in the council chamber this afternoon, May-Blissett presiding. The Mayor stated he had received information that some of our citizens had been notified to leave by unauthorized persons, and that this meeting was called to consider whether we should protect ourselves by upholding the laws for the preservation of order or allow unauthorized men to take the law out of our hands. The chairman selected a respectable and influential committee who reported the following:

Resolved, That we live under a government of law, and that it is the bounden duty of every good citizen to see all rights respected and all our wrongs speedily redressed in the form provided by law.

Resolved, That the genius of our institution forbids the punishment of a citizen without a fair trial by jury.

Resolved, That the assumption by individuals however influential and respectable by any powers of government are subversive of all civil liberty and that its tendencies are fatal to the vital interest of the community.

Resolved, that if the existing laws are insufficient for the protection of the rights of our citizens the proper course is to apply to the legislature to amend and modify them as the interest of society may require unqualified excitement prevailed at the time and during the meeting which was addressed by Colonel Cummings, Wright, Ford and others—conservative sentiments generally prevailed, the resolutions announced were adopted.

9 P. M.

The secessionists are holding a large meeting here to-night. The Savannah resolutions were unanimously adopted and are being amended as follows:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that the only remedy for the election of Abraham Lincoln is immediate disunion.

This resolution was received with loud and prolonged applause. It is believed that the thanks of the south are due to brave and gallant men of the north, who attempted to roll back the tide of fanaticism.

Resolved, That this meeting is pledged to submit to a rate of taxation to raise a million of dollars to arm and organize the for the state. A further resolution was then adopted condemning the action of the citizens' meeting this afternoon and declaring the resolutions adopted by that meeting as not expressing the sense of the community. Col. Anderson of Savannah is now addressing the meeting, arguing in favor of decided and immediate action. The most intense excitement prevails.

11 P. M.
